

Laurel Legacy Fast Facts

The Laurel Legacy is Soroptimist International of the Americas' way of recognizing and honoring the generosity of those whose future gifts preserve the strength of the organization, and help women and girls to live their dreams. Arranging a future gift to Soroptimist International of the Americas is an excellent way to guarantee that Soroptimist programs will continue to help women who benefit from our programs.

There are many planned giving options, such as bequests, gifts of appreciated real estate or personal property, gifts of life insurance, gift annuities or deferred gift annuities. You may enjoy a tax savings while ensuring the long-term viability of Soroptimist International of the Americas' programs.

For more information on various planned giving options, please visit www.planyourlegacy.soroptimist.org, or contact Soroptimist International of the Americas' Senior Director of Development at 215-893-9000.

All you need to do to become a member of the Laurel Legacy is to complete and return the Laurel Legacy Enrollment Form and return it to headquarters letting us know that you have made arrangements in your estate planning for Soroptimist International of the Americas to receive a future gift. There is no need to provide a copy of your will or other documents to substantiate your gift.

Laurel Legacy commitments are acknowledged now with a beautifully designed pin and recognition at federation events. When your gift is received, your name will be inscribed on the Laurel Legacy memorial plaque at Soroptimist International of the Americas' headquarters in Philadelphia.

It is not the intention of Soroptimist to provide legal, tax or financial counseling. Planned giving concepts vary according to local and/or national laws and customs. Consult a financial professional to decide which method might be the most advantageous for you.